Class II Gaming

Class II gaming is thriving in Oklahoma and other Native American casinos across the country.

The Indian Gaming Regulatory Act (IGRA), which established the classes of gaming for Indian tribes in the United States, allows tribes to retain their authority to conduct, license and regulate Class II gaming. Therefore, tribes do not need to enter into state compacts like they do with Class III, nor do they incur taxes on Class II gaming revenue.

As tribes expanded Class II gaming offerings, technological innovations and advancements led the way in the gaming industry as a whole. VGT's Class II products often outperform their Class III counterparts, prompting many tribes to become even more interested in the benefits of Class II gaming.
